

<http://raforum.site/spip.php?article3051>

HAMBURG, Gary M. "Remembering Natal'ia Pirumova: On writing history in the Stalin and post-Stalin eras."

Date de mise en ligne : Saturday 29 October 2005

- Research on Anarchism - History: Anarchism and Anarchists Yesterday and Today - Historians of anarchism -

---

Copyright © RAForum - All rights reserved

---

Kritika: Explorations in Russian and Eurasian History 2000 1(3): 507-530.

The Soviet historian Natal'ia Mikhailovna Pirumova (1923-97) managed to maintain a high reputation while making her research on the anarchist tradition. She wrote a biography of Mikhail Bakunin and other works, on Alexander Herzen and the Zemstvo Liberal tradition, some of which were published and others could not.